11. The applicant must reach out to the Saskatchewan Health Authority to confirm if any approval or inspections are required. They can be reached by email at publichealthinspection@pnrha.ca.

12. Applicant is responsible to obtain Provincial Approval if required under Saskatchewan Day Home Regulations.

13. Any renovations to accommodate this use may require a Building Permit and/or Plumbing Permit to be submitted for review. Please reach out to Jeff Sydoruk, Building Inspector - Superior Safety Codes at 780-870-9020, with the scope of work to confirm if additional permits are required.

14. As per Subsection 3.9.3 and 3.9.5 of Land Use Bylaw 05-2025, Development permit may become void, if in the opinion of the Development Authority, the use has not started within a period of twelve (12) months of the date of issuance or the Use has been stalled or discontinued for a period of twelve (12) months.

15. When a Development Permit becomes void, a new Development Permit application is required before development may proceed. Such applications shall be dealt with as if it was the first application and there shall be no obligation to approve such application on the basis that a previous application had been approved for that development.

16. Where there is deemed to be a contravention of any of the above conditions a Stop Order may be issued following notice to the landowner.

17. This approval may be rescinded if in the opinion of the Development Authority it is determined that this business has a negative impact on the neighborhood, is in contravention of any of the above condition(s), or the Development Permit has been obtained by misrepresentation.

Although approved, this permit is subject to a twenty-one (21) day appeal period from the date of advertisement. The advertisement is proposed to be in the December 11, 2025, edition of the Meridian Source newspaper.

Any development commenced or undertaken within the twenty-one (21) day appeal period, or where an appeal has been filed but not finally determined, shall be solely at the risk of the developer and in no event shall the City be liable for the filing or outcome of any appeal.

If you are not in agreement with this decision or the conditions described herein, it may be appealed within twenty-one (21) days from the date of issuance (as per Section 686 - Municipal Government Act) by submitting a written notice and processing fee as identified in the current Fees and Charges Bylaw, to the following:

City Hall – Office of the City Clerk
Attention - Secretary of the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
