

Oro African Methodist Episcopal Church

Built in 1846-49, it is a designated National Historic Site and one of the oldest surviving Black churches in Canada, established by formerly enslaved settlers in the Oro Settlement. It stands as a significant symbol of Black heritage, faith and community in Ontario.

Saturday, September 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Discover Simcoe County's heritage during Doors Open Ontario. Step inside historical buildings, cultural landmarks, natural sites and special spaces rarely open to the public. Enjoy free access, guided experiences and new ways to experience Simcoe County's past and present.