STORIES THAT BUILT SADDLE HILLS COUNTY

Every community has a story. Help tell ours. Saddle Hills County is gathering the stories, photos and memories that capture the people, places and moments that have shaped local communities. Share historic photos, family and pioneer stories, school memories, farming and homesteading history, community milestones, local landmarks, or stories about the people who made a difference. Selected submissions may be featured in the 2027 Saddle Hills County Calendar and future County communications. Have a story or photo to share? Submissions can be sent to communications@saddlehill.ab.ca

PROJECT AURORA CONSTRUCTION UNDERWAY

Construction is underway in Silver Valley, Bonanza, Gordondale, Whitburn and Blueberry Mountain as part of Project Aurora. Canadian Fiber Optics is building approximately 550 km of fiber infrastructure across Saddle Hills County, bringing high-speed internet to nearly 600 homes and businesses. Residents can expect to see drilling and plowing crews, equipment and construction activity as work progresses. Construction updates will be posted at saddlehills.ab.ca/News.

NON-POTABLE WATER AVAILABLE AT KSITUAN & BONANZA

Residents and contractors can now access free non-potable water at both the Ksituan Water Treatment Plant and the Bonanza Water Treatment Plant (TWP 802, RR 123). The Ksituan station has reopened with a larger pump, providing increased water volume and pressure. These stations are intended primarily for agricultural use and are also suitable for dust control, construction, equipment washing, and other non-drinking purposes. Please note: Non-potable water is not safe for human consumption, including drinking, cooking, or personal hygiene. Both stations are available throughout the summer season.
